LEAGUE UN-AMERICAN SAYS GOV. COOLIDGE

Address Of Acceptance De- voted To Domestic Questions.

Northampton, Mass., July 27.—Governor Coolidge, in an address formally accepting the Republican nomination for Vice President at notification ceremonies here today, urged the country to summon its forces to solve the problems of reconstruction. He devoted the greater part of his address to a discussion of domestic issues, but called first for "a return to a thorough peace basis, because that is the fundamental American basis." And before domestic problems can be solved, he added, there must be a return from "the voluntary autocracy" established in the emergency of a war to a government as exercised under the doctrine of the separation of powers.

In discussing the League of Nations the governor commended the Republican senators for their opposition to the covenant without reservations as submitted by the President, terming "the league in that form subversive of the traditions and the independence of America." But the Republican party, he added, "approves the principles of agreement among nations to preserve peace, and pledges itself to the making of such an agreement preserving American independence and rights as well as will meet every duty America owes to humanity."

Thousands Unmindful of Heat.

The exercises were held on Allen Field, the athletic grounds of Smith College, at 3 o'clock this afternoon before a crowd of several thousand, which stood throughout the program, apparently unmindful of the scorching rays of the sun, which had turned the ideal summer day of the morning into one of uncomfortable sultriness. The governor spoke from a mound which formed a natural platform and stood under a canopy flanked at either side by the Stars and Stripes and the state flag of Massachusetts. With him on the platform were Senator Lodge, former Senator John W. Weeks, of Massachusetts, and other party leaders. A touch of the picturesque was added when an airplane flew low and dropped flowers upon the field.

Governor Coolidge's declaration in behalf of woman suffrage was the signal for an enthusiastic demonstration. He said that he had always voted for it, but did not regard it as a party question. The Republican party, he said, "stands pledged to use its endeavors to hasten ratification, which, I trust will be at once accomplished."

Speaks Without Gestures.

The governor followed his manuscript closely and spoke in an even tone which carried well. Only occasionally did he employ marked inflection of gestures. His address was punctuated with applause from an audience which from the first showed eagerness to do him honor. When he concluded he was accorded another ovation led by Senator Lodge. The latter refused to respond to loudly-shouted demands of "speech" and then the crowd closed around Governor Coolidge to extend congratulations.

The venerable President-emeritus L. Clark Seelye, of Smith College, who presided, called attention particularly to Governor Coolidge's course during the Boston police strike. He referred to the vice presidential candidate as "the man who at the risk of life and official position gave an object lesson sorely needed in these turbulent times, to teach us that we are under a government where the rights of every man are to be safeguarded and maintained at all times and at any cost."

Lauded By Democratic Mayor.

Michael J. Fitzgerald, the Democratic mayor of Northampton, in an address of welcome said the governor was "a man who has proven his fitness for any office." The invocation was delivered by Rev. Kenneth B. Welles, pastor of the Edwards Congregational Church, which the governor attends and the audience then sang "America."

The official program opened with a meeting of the notification committee at noon and a luncheon tendered the committee by Governor and Mrs. Coolidge at their home. But long before that hour the crowds which had been pouring into the city for twenty-four hours had begun a celebration of their own. The streets, hotels and clubs, which kept open house, were jammed with persons wearing badges and carrying flags, while a drum corps whizzed about the city in a truck and pounded out marching songs. In addition three bands vied with each other in an effort to produce the most noise, and hawkers sold their toy balloons and rattlers to a crowd eager to do their share in the celebration. The city was elaborately decorated with flags and bunting surrounding pictures of Governor Coolidge and the slogans "Law and Order" and "Have Faith in Massachusetts."

EXPERIMENT STATION REPRESENTATIVES HERE

Messrs. M. L. Hall and C. A. Mosgrove, of the Kentucky Experiment Station Staff were here and in the County a few days this week, doing special work in the Boys' and Girls' Club Department.

They had a lantern and slides and gave illustrated lectures at different points in the County. Their displays and talks were reported as very interesting and it is believed that much good will result from the campaign of education and organization.

VILLA PREPARING TO GIVE SELF UP

Mexico City, July 27.—Francisco Villa is obeying all orders given him by the government. Gen. Edurado C. Garcia, chief of staff of the War Department, told the Associated Press today.

"Villa has been instructed to re-concentrate his troops at Babbinas, in the state of Coahuila, and he has done so," said General Garcia. "The only guarantee the government has given Villa is a guarantee of life, but the other details of surrender are being handled by Gen. Eugenio Martinez commander of the Northern operations.

"Villa has six hundred men. He may come to Mexico City with Martinez to receive the full terms of surrender, which probably will be retirement to private life with possible aid to get started in civil life, just as the United States handled the Apaches after their surrender."

JOHN H. MILLER.

Mr. John H. Miller died Saturday afternoon, at his home near Beech Valley, after an illness of short duration. After funeral services conducted at Marvin's Chapel by Rev. W. E. Burdette assisted by Revs. T. B. Bandy and Sanders the remains were buried at Sunnydale, Sunday afternoon, in the presence of relatives and friends estimated to be more than one-thousand in number.

Mr. Miller was a member of the M. E. Church, was 67 years and 4 months old and was widely known in that section of the County.

Besides his widow, the deceased is survived by two daughters and four sons.

MORROW LANDS ON

NEW YORK BURGLAR

New York, July 28.—Accused by the scuffling of the guests with an alleged burglar in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel here today, Gov. Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky rushed from his room and helped overpower the intruder, who fought desperately to escape.

Andrew Crawford, a lawyer, discovered the intruder in his room, crouching at the foot of his bed early today. He grappled with the man and called for help, bringing a score of guests to his aid.

The alleged burglar, however, escaped and was about to run into Governor Morrow's room when the Kentuckian appeared in his pajamas and grappled with the man, whom he turned over to the police.

The intruder, later identified as Peter Hermida, a discharged hotel employee, was held in $5,000 bail for unlawful entry.

TOTS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. M. L. McCracken, in honor of the third anniversary of her daughter's birthday, entertained twenty of the little lady's small friends last Saturday forenoon, on the playgrounds at the College. Refreshments, to the heart's content, were served to the little ones, and a happy morning was spent by the wee hostess and guests.

HARDING TOLD WEST IS HIS BY ADAMS

Marion, O., July 27.—Various subjects relating to management of the Republican campaign were discussed today by Senator Harding in a series of conferences with party leaders from several sections of the country.

One of the callers was John T. Adams, of Iowa, vice chairman of the national committee, who reported on conditions in the West and told the nominee his acceptance speech has made a great hit there. He predicted that the Republican ticket would "swell the country."

During the day the nominee had hoped to begin preparations of the speech he will make here Saturday to a delegation from Mansfield, O., but he said tonight he had not yet even decided what subjects he would discuss. He indicated he might not confine it to one subject, and was considering discussion of several issues that only were touched on in his speech of acceptance.

Support from the National Roosevelt League was promised today in a letter from its president, Bela Tokaji who wrote:

"Permit me on behalf of the officers and members of the National Roosevelt League to compliment you on your common-sense address accepting the nomination. The salient points in that speech thoroughly appeal to all 100 per cent Americans. Those citizens who do not measure up to the Americanism you are advocating, count very little on election day. We pledge you our hearty support. You have our best wishes for success."

ENTERTAINED BLACK CATS

Miss Clifffie Felix entertained the Black Cat Amusement Club Thursday afternoon July 22. A number of interesting games of "500" were played. Mrs. Louis Riley and Miss Lelia Glenn tied for high score. Mrs. Riley making the lucky draw, was presented a lovely week-end toilet case. After the conclusion of the games a delicious ice was served.

The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Darrel Sullenger, Misses Daisy Wedding and Beulah Moore. The members present were Mesdames Louis Riley, Henderson Murphree, Misses Lelia Glenn, Mattie Duke, Mary Laura Pendleton, Norine Barnett.

DEATH OF BROTHERS CAUSED IN GREETING

Covington, Ky., July 27.—The exchange of greetings during their first meeting as members of the same switching crew in the C. & O. Railroad yards in Covington proved fatal Tuesday morning for two brothers, Bernard Rusche, 23 years old, and Joseph J. Rusche, 26.

Within half an hour of the time they were to have been relieved of duty the brothers chanced to meet on the top of a cut of box cars in the Covington yards.

They paused for a moment in the midst of their duties to speak to one another. Just then the engine attached to the cars unexpectedly started forward. The brothers, off their guard, were thrown from the car by the lurch and fell under the moving wheels.

Besides other injuries the legs of each of the brothers were cut off. The victims were hurried to St Elizabeth's Hospital where they died within a short time of one another.

W. T. TAYLOR DEAD

Mrs. W. T. Taylor of near Mt. Pleasant, died Wednesday morning in a hospital of Louisville, where he had gone for an operation but died before it could be performed. Mr. Taylor had been in poor health for a number of years and had recently become so much worse that an operation was deemed the last resort.

The remains were buried yesterday afternoon at 2:30 at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, of which he was a devoted member.

The deceased was near sixty years of age and a splendid citizen. His death is a distinct loss to his community. Besides his widow he is survived by one son, Mr. Courtlan M. Taylor.

RECOGNITION, DEMAND OF RUSSIAN SOVIETS

Alternative Of Open War- fare To Be Lenin's Program.

Warsaw, July 25.—The Lithuanian government has delivered an ultimatum to the Soviet government demanding the immediate evacuation of Lithuanian territory by Red troops.

London, July 25.—Premier Lloyd George told the House of Commons today that Soviet Russia has notified Great Britain the Bolsheviks agree to a general peace conference in London. The premier added the British government was recommending acceptance of the proposal to the various allied governments.

Paris, July 26.—A high official revealed tonight that France, convinced of America's backing against Soviet Russia, will refuse to participate in the suggested peace conference at London unless the United States also is officially represented.

Formal and complete recognition of the Soviet government of Russia by all the allies will be demanded by Lenin at the peace conference in London if it takes place. Information to this effect reaches me from an unimpeachable source.

The sole alternative to the allies will be open warfare with Russia, the first result of which would be the extinction of Poland as a political entity, followed by the carrying of the Sovie thanders to the very borders of the Entente countries.

Lenin's delegates to the proposed London conference will be armed with a most powerful argument, namely, that their demand is backed by a well-equipped fighting force of 3,000,000 bayonets, an army whose morale has been immeasurably strengthened by the sweeping successes against Poland and the Southern "white army" leaders.

Discount Threat.

Affecting amusement at the threat of Premiers Lloyd George and Miller and that they would succor Poland "with all our forces and resources," the Soviet chieftains assert that the allies are unable to assemble sufficient forces to fight the Bolshevik army before spring—and by spring, they add, the "Red" army will be the master of Europe.

Furthermore, the Soviet diplomats claim that should France, Britain or Italy attempt to raise an army, the labor and radical elements in those countries would revolt, making the Soviets' task of subduing the "capitalistic powers" only easier and surer.

Little or no effort is being exerted by the Soviets to placate French feeling with regard to France's claim for repayment of the czar's debts. The Moscow government obviously shares the belief that prevails in well-informed quarters here and in London that when the hour of final decision as to allied policy comes, Premier Lloyd George is the dictator, and that therefore France will be bound to whatever he decides.

Reparation Hangs Fire.

Pending the London conference, not only the fate of Poland, but that of Europe, hangs in the balance. Interned conferences regarding the German reparations questions are at a standstill. Postponed from May to June, to July, and then to August, that question now seems indefinitely adjourned. Six conferences have been held on this subject and absolutely no result has been reached. It is now believed that at least two informal conferences of the "Big Three" will be necessary before the allies can meet the Germans with a solid front on the reparations program.

It is not believed anything concrete will be done at the coming Geneva conference. Indeed, it is doubted whether any solution will be reached this year.

The allied statesmen have come to the realization that Germany does not intend to pay a reparation total anywhere near the figures set at Boulogne and other allied confabs; as a result a European economic and financial crisis looms larger than ever.

Again the allies are looking to America to settle the question for them. In the words of a prominent diplomat, the general situation may be summed up as follows:

"If a working agreement is reached between the allies and the Soviets at London; if the allies succeed in avoiding new squabbles over the reparations; if the revolution now imminent in Italy and other European countries is avoided or staved off; if the trouble brewing between Austria and Hungary, between Holland and Belgium, between Sweden and Finland, Bulgaria and Greece, Serbia and Italy, and between Greece and Italy, is smoothed over, and if the Greeks succeed in beating the combined Communist and Nationalist forces in Turkey—if all these things happen, why, then, there will be hope of peace in Europe; otherwise most certainly not; unless, of course, America takes a hand by releasing Europe from all indebtedness to her and by pouring a fresh torrent of billions upon the troubled waters of the Old World. But that is hardly probable."

BARN WRECKED—HORSE KILLED BY LIGHTNING

A barn belonging to Mrs. Magnolia Smith, of the Clear Run country was struck by a lightning bolt in the storm of last Saturday afternoon, when the building was badly wrecked and one horse killed. By chance it seems, the barn did not catch on fire, or else the damage would have been considerably greater.

GUARDSMEN LEAVE FOR COAL COUNTRY

Frankfort, Ky., July 27—Captain Kennedy, of Louisville, commanding twenty-five men of the Kentucky State Guard, left here tonight for Pike County to guard the coal mines in the Tug River district. The troops comprise machine gun operators from Louisville and Leitchfield, infantrymen from Morehead and members of Troop B. of London. The Manchester troops will come in tomorrow and will be under command of Capt. L. V. Crockett, of Covington, who commanded the state troops at Lexington during the riot there. Captain Crockett brought in fourteen men with him from Covington, and these men will complete the quota of fifty who will go to the coal fields to preserve order.

A like number of West Virginia troops will act with the Kentucky troops. The men received their equipment at the arsenal.

RUSSIANS AND POLES IN FIERCE FIGHTING

Paris, July 27.—With the exception of a brief truce that followed Soviet Russia's acceptance of the Polish plea for permission to send an armistice commission, fighting appears to have been going on fiercely and continuously on the Russo-Polish line.

Latest communiques from Warsaw show the Polish armies are continuing to retire under the steady pressure of the red legions. Desperate fighting rages in many sectors.

In curious contrast with this news, is a statement attributed to General Henry, of the French general staff, after a visit to the front. He is quoted as saying:

"The critical moment has passed. We need confidence. We can look into the future without worry."

The French general said the Polish troops are holding well and "will continue to hold."

Not quite in accord with this optimistic statement is an official Polish report stating that the Russians in the Grodno sector "continued to attack with tremendous energy throughout the day." It adds that "fighting heavily, our detachments fell back."

An official radio from the Bolshevik army headquarters reports that the Russians captured a Polish cavalry regiment of 1,000 men, with eight guns, three tanks and 150 machine guns near Grodno.

BARN DESTROYED.

During the electrical storm Saturday afternoon, lightning struck a barn of Mr. Peter Shown, of near New Town, from which fire resulted, completely destroying the building, about 5,000 pounds of baled straw, a lot of agricultural implements and other things, entailing a loss of $1,000 to $1,200, with only a small amount of insurance carried.

Mr. Raymond Phillips returned last week-end from Dawson where he had been spending a week. He was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Parris, of Texas, who were also sojourning at Dawson. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and their visitors went to Owensboro Tuesday, to visit relatives.

FLOWERS OF CZAR LEAD ARMY OF REDS

Await Chance To Overthrow Bolsheviks and Restore Empire It Is Said.

Vienna, July 24.—The Neue Wiener Journal publishes today from a special correspondent in Russia an account of the difficulties with which the "Red" armies are faced in their war with the Poles. The correspondent says:

"When Trotzky and Lenin were attacked by the armies of Kolchak, Denikin and Yudenitch they approached the old czarist generals for help. It is quite certain that these generals, who, at present, are fighting in great numbers in the "Red" army, by no means favor Bolshevism. This is proved by the fact that their doings are carefully watched by specially reliable Bolshevik commissioners. Nevertheless, Brusiloff, Ivanhoff, Ever and Kropotkin again are helping Lenin and Trotzky.

"Brusiloff and Ivanhoff, who might be described as 'national Bolsheviks,' are not fighting for the same objects as the 'orthodox Bolsheviks.' They joined Lenin and Trotzky when the latter were attacked by Kolchak and Denikin because they classed the counter-revolutionary generals as 'marionettes' of the entente. Their worst enemies, the Poles, have brought about the reunion.

"Both parties distrust each other. Both, however, are

U. S. MARINES EVER IN WAR'S TURMOIL

"Devil Dogs" Busy In Remote Corner Of The Earth

Washington, July 24.—For Uncle Sam's marines the fighting is never at an end. While the great war and their part in its history, they still are busy in the far corners of the world settling small disturbances, guarding government property and awaiting any eventuality.

In Haiti and San Domingo nearly 4,000 "Devil Dogs" as the Germans came to call them after Belleau Wood are maintaining order and bringing recalcitrant bands to justice. It is not a "play" job by any means, and at times lately it has assumed the proportions of real war. Casualty lists are not lacking and almost every week there come to headquarters here the names of "leather-necks" killed or wounded in clashes with bandits and revolutionaries.

In China the legation guard of 275 marines at Pekin is ever prepared for any emergency, and for a time recently it appeared that they would be forced into action against Chinese revolutionaries who were threatening to attack the Chinese capital.

In Nicaragua another legation guard is maintained, while the marines are aboard American warships in Mexican waters prepared on short notice to protect American lives and property should their services be required.

Stationed In Haiti.

In Haiti the corps is represented by 1,700 officers and men in two small regiments comprising the 1st Provisional Brigade. The brigade is commanded by Col. J. H. Russell and the two regiments by Cos. L. M. Little and R. C. Berkeley. Of late conditions in Haiti have quieted down to some extent, and altho skirmishes with bandits are still a common occurrence, it is said at headquarters that the marines "have the situation well in hand."

In San Domingo an even greater force of soldier-sailors are on duty. Here 2,200 marines, organized into three regiments, form the 2nd Provisional Brigade, commanded by Brig. Gen. Logan Feland. In the northern part of the island the 4th Regiment, under Col. Dion Williams, is taking things easy but in the south the 15th Regiment is in the field in small detachments, chasing bandits and outlaws and quite often getting a smell of gunpowder. The regiment is commanded by Col. J. C. Breckinridge, General Feland and his staff have headquarters at San Domingo City and the 3rd Regiment is stationed there in reserve.

Since the killing of the bandit leaders, Charlemagne and a number of his followers, and the surrender of Benoit Bertraville, another bandit chieftain, San Domingo, has assumed a quieter aspect, headquarters' officials declare, and it is believed that there will be little more active fighting on the island. However, the greater part of the brigade probably will be kept at San Domingo for some time to guard against any outbreak.

Rear Admiral Snowden is military governor of both Haiti and San Domingo and the marine forces are entirely under his command.

No unusual occurrences have been reported recently by Capt. J. H. Underhill, commanding the guard at the United States legation at Managua, Nicaragua. Two companies are maintained at this post.

Surgeons agree that in cases of Cuts, Burns, Bruises and Wounds the first treatment is most important. When an efficient antiseptic is applied promptly, there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, Borozone is the ideal Antiseptic and healing agent. Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. Sold by Ohio County Drug Co.

ARMY BRUTALITY IS HIT BY WAR INVESTIGATORS

Washington, July 24.—Determination to do away with the system of military injustice which was practiced with the consent of the Wilson administration upon the American soldiers who participated in the war is expressed by the House Select Committee on Expenditures in the War Department.

Representative Royal Johnson, chairman of the subcommittee which made the report, served as a major in France. He and his Republican colleague, Oscar E. Bland, of Indiana, recommend that the existing articles of war be so changed as to require:

That charges shall not be preferred except under oath.

That before the accused is held for general court-martial there shall be a thorough and expeditious preliminary examination to determine whether or not there is a prima facie case against him.

That he be promptly released from arrest or confinement if charges have not been preferred and the preliminary examination made within a specified, reasonable time.

That the accused shall have the assistance of counsel from the time of his arrest until the final result of the proceedings of his case.

That the proceedings of the court martial be regulated by law rather than by the unguided judgment of the officers who compose the court, and that the rules of evidence ordinarily applicable in criminal cases be applicable to court martial proceedings.

That there shall be a review independent of military command to determine the legal correctness of all general court martial proceedings.

"It is obvious," says the report, "that the existing system is archaic and was designed for an army not composed of citizen soldiers armed in defense of the State, and it is equally obvious that the administration of the existing system has been without sympathy for the unprofessional citizen soldier subject to its discipline. The private when arrested was immediately burdened with the presumption that a prisoner was a skulker, and no sympathy was shown him and no adequate opportunity given that his side of the case might receive the consideration the ordinary dictates of justice and humanity demand.

"This lack of sympathy is reflected throughout the army, for instance in the general order in the American Expeditionary Forces that no private should associate with an army or Red Cross nurse. A system of discipline that breaks the spirit of the men, that destroys their self-respect and the respect they have for the organization to which they belong, cannot be conducive to good morals or enhance the fighting qualities of the unit, and any system of rules or orders promulgated to regulate the conduct of private soldiers in any army such as the United States had in the World War, which destroys the self-respect of the soldier or constantly reminds him of his inferiority or deprives him of privileges which he clearly should enjoy, must necessarily be conducive to the destruction of morale and must cause deep hatred in the heart of the victim for the system of militarism that alone can foster such unjust, unfair and inexcusable regulations and methods.

"The whole court martial power being an incident of command, exercisable or not, as the commanding officer sees fit, the result has been to make it easy to court martial enlisted men and very difficult to court martial officers. Officers are loath to stigmatize their fellow officers by court martial, but there is no such zealous regard for the enlisted men. Under the code a man may languish indefinitely in prison without a hearing or trial. The accused enlisted man is not given that assistance of counsel which a fair trial requires and which can reasonably be provided in the army under all conditions."

Summer Complaint in Children

There is not anything like so many deaths from this disease now as before Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy came into such general use. When this remedy is given with castor oil as directed and proper care is taken as to diet, it is safe to say that fully ninety-nine out of every hundred cases recover. Mr. W. G. Campbell, of Butler, Tenn., says,

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for summer complaint in children. It is far ahead of anything I have ever used for this purpose."

CRIME ON DECREASE SHERIFF LEAVES POST

Atlanta, Mich., July 24.—Because of a lack of business to keep the office alive, Robert McLellan has tendered his resignation as sheriff of Montgomery County.

The office has been conducted on a fee basis, in addition to allowance for the sheriff of $500 a year as janitor of the courthouse. With the advent of prohibition, it is said, business in the sheriff line has fallen off sharply, so much so that the officer was obliged to seek other employment.

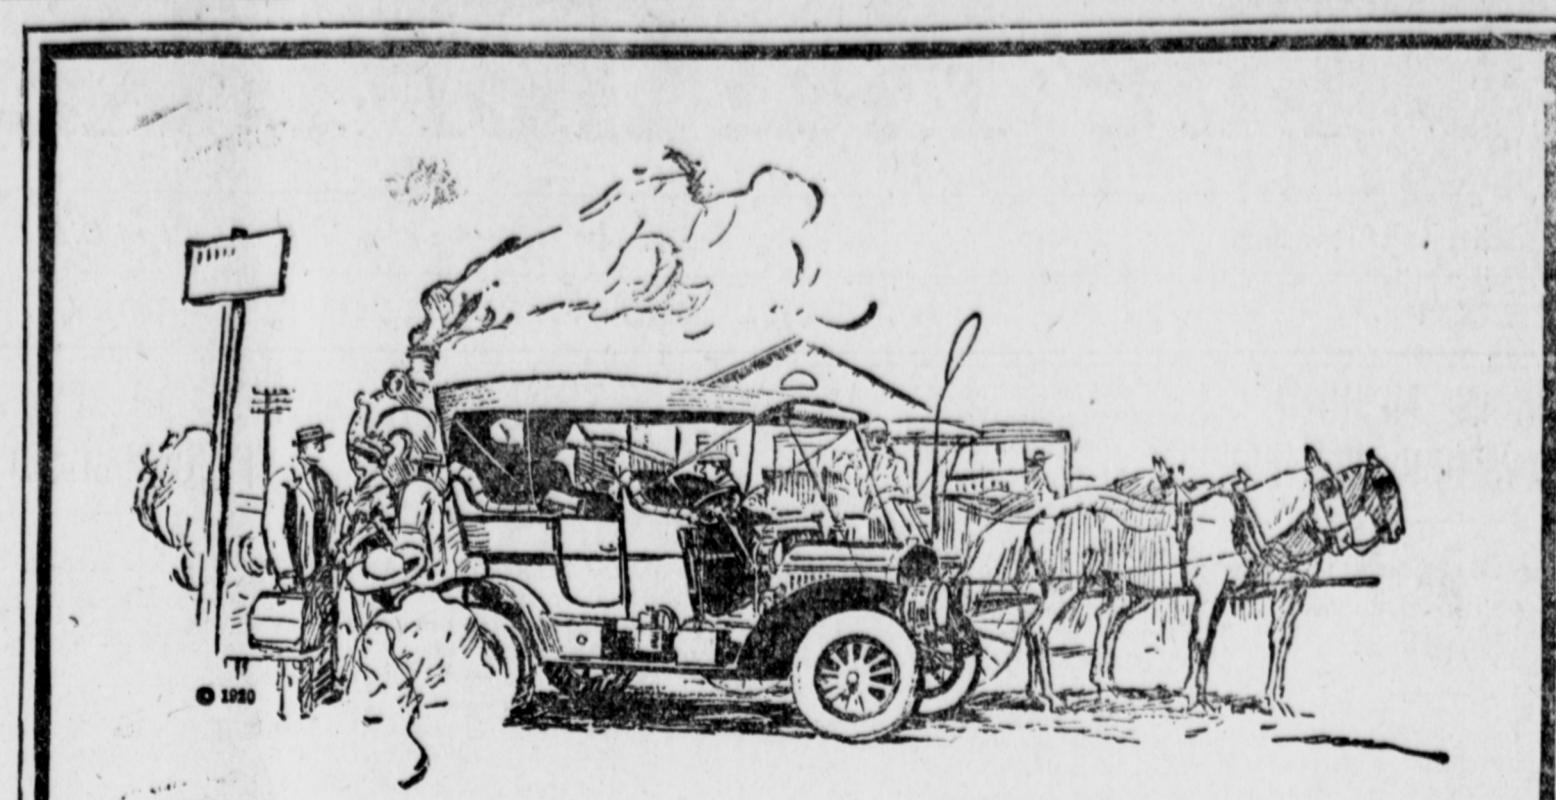

The sheriff of Kalkaska County recently resigned for similar reasons.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

To the taxpayers of Ohio county:

Our office will be open at all reasonable times from July the 1st, until Oct. 31st, for the purpose of assessing the property of the county, I, or one of my deputies will visit the various voting places in the County, (watch for posters in your precinct the future) to accommodate those who do not care to come to the office to give their list, but under the classification act of the last legislature, we feel that we can be of material benefit to you in making your assessment here at the office.

7,425 "BATTLES IN AIR, HUNS' RECORD

2,128 Plans Lost—1,072,957 Bombs Thrown, German Report Shows.

By Karl H. Von Wiegand.

Berlin, July 24.—Germany had 128 Zeppelins and Schutte-Lanz air cruisers made a total of 482 flights, of which 317 were reconnaissances in the North Sea and forty-one attacks on London and other points in England. The reconnaissances lasted from sixteen to twenty-four hours in the air. The longest time in the air was ninety-six hours. That was the trip of the L-59 to Central East Africa.

Casualties thru the loss of navy airships were 389 officers and men "dead." No "wounded" are given, evidently there were no survivors.

This includes the crew of the L-19, which the British refused to rescue after it had been shot down and fallen in the North Sea. The army airship casualties were but fifty-two officers and men dead.

These figures, until the armistice one of the closest kept secrets in the archives of the German general staff, are now revealed for the first time by Maj. George P. Neuman, of the German air organization in his comprehensive work, "The German air forces in the World War," in the preparation of which twenty-nine other officers of these forces collaborated, with official statistics and material from the general staff.

Made 482 Flights.

The navy Zeppelins and Schutte-Lanz air cruisers made a total of 482 flights, of which 317 were reconnaissances in the North Sea and forty-one attacks on London and other points in England. The reconnaissances lasted from sixteen to twenty-four hours in the air. The longest time in the air was ninety-six hours. That was the trip of the L-59 to Central East Africa.

This includes the crew of the L-19, which the British refused to rescue after it had been shot down and fallen in the North Sea. The army airship casualties were but fifty-two officers and men dead.

When the war broke out Germany mobilized 218 airplanes. Up to January 1, 1919, 47,637 airplanes of all types had been delivered to the army. 2,128 planes were lost in air battles and another 1,000 are given as "missing."

Bombs thrown are given at 1,072,

No less than 7,425 "air battles" are recorded, including 614 enemy observation balloons brought down. The official roster of German air fighters with more than three enemy planes to their record has 458 names. It is headed by Maj. Baron von Richthofen, who was killed after bringing down eighty enemy planes. Second is Lieut. Ernst Udet, with sixty, who survived the war. Of seventy-two flyers who received the much-coveted "Pour le Merite" order twenty-seven were afterward killed. Significant are the figures showing how German paid with lives of her sons in experimenting and developing her air service during the war and in training camps. The casualties in service is called, were: Killed, 1,962; injured, 2,227; on the fronts, 3,207; wounded, 4,296; missing, 2,743. These figures do not include the casualties already given in the loss of airships.

Why Doctors Treat the Blood with Iron

When the doctor treats your blood, he gives you iron, for iron is said to be the best thing in all medicine to build up the blood. Sometimes he does this by regulating your diet—sometimes he administers iron in the form of pills or tonics. But always he is seeking a way to get more iron into your blood—he is trying to put back this great builder of health and strength.

Quick Improvement from New Form of Iron

The new way to restore iron to the body—the surest and most dependable of all methods—is through the use of Acid Iron Mineral. This is a natural form of soluble iron, found in Nature itself, combined with other highly beneficial remedial agents. The story of the discovery of this new form of iron reads almost like a fairy tale and medical science has proved its remarkable blood-making powers beyond question or doubt.

Acid Iron Mineral may be procured in either liquid or the more convenient tablet form at any drug store. It contains no alcohol or injurious drugs and will not blacken the teeth. It has been especially noted that pale, puny children, weak, run-down persons and those enfeebled by age show improvement and exhibit increased strength almost immediately after starting treatment.

NEGRO CONFESSES TO MULTITUDE OF CRIMES

Admits Murdering Seven People and Countless Robberies.

Las Angeles, Cal., July 23.—Mose Gibson, negro, sentenced to hang for the murder of Roy Trapp, Fullerton, Cal., rancher, has confessed to seven murders including the slaying of J. R. Reavis, of Baton Rouge, La., according to a telephone message received today by Sheriff John C. Cline, of Los Angeles County, from Sheriff J. E. Jackson, at Santa Ana.

Sheriff Jackson has just returned from taking Gibson to the penitentiary at San Quentin.

The murders to which Jackson said, Gibson confessed were:

Roy Trapp, rancher, Fullerton, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Erhardt, Phoenix, Ariz., last month.

J. R. Reavis, white restaurant man, of Baton Rouge Junction, La., 12 years ago.

A woman at Orange City Junction, Fla., killed in November, 1919.

A watchman at a sugar mill at Crameroy, St. James Parish, La., murdered in November, 1910.

Admissions that he committed "thousands" of burglaries, obtaining sums from a few cents to $100 was made by Gibson, according to the sheriff.

Gibson was arrested at Topoca, Ariz., for the murder of Trapp. He was brought here, pleaded guilty to the murder charge and sentenced to hang September 24. The negro killed most of his victims with a hammer he asserted.

Mr. and Mrs. Erhardt were killed, according to the confession, after the negro had served a jail sentence at Douglas, Ariz. He said he killed the couple to obtain money. Reavis also was killed for money.

Two of the burglaries were committed in one night in June, 1913, in Omaha, Neb., the sheriff said. Gibson was arrested after the first and escaped, altho handcuffed. With the manacles on his wrist, he committed the second, he said, to obtain money for having the handcuffs filed off.

Tampa, Fla., July 23.—Mrs. Mary Clark, a widow, at Orange City Junction, Volusia County, was mysteriously killed at her home last November and no trace of her slayer ever has been found, the sheriff of Volusia County said tonight when informed of the confession of a series of murders reported to have been made by Mose Gibson, a negro, awaiting execution in the San Quentin Cal. penitentiary.

The Volusia County sheriff said that a negro by the name of Mose Gibson was known in the vicinity of Orange City Junction, but the investigation of the killing of Mrs. Clark did not connect the negro with the crime.

JOHNSON PREDICTS SWEEPING VICTORY

San Francisco, July 23.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California, declared in a statement today that Senator Harding in his speech of acceptance of the Republican presidential nomination took an unequivocal stand upon the "paramount issue in this campaign, the League of Nations," and that his position has "made Republican success certain and his election assured."

Quoting from the speech of acceptance delivered by Senator Harding yesterday at Marion, O., Senator Johnson said the Republican standard-bearer was to be congratulated upon his firm and emphatic stand against the proposed league, and declared his words "strike an answering chord with every American."

Party Is Committed.

The statement continues: "Yesterday in his speech of acceptance Senator Harding unequivocally took his stand upon the paramount issue in this campaign the League of Nations. The Republican party stands committed by its platform; its standard-bearer now accentuates that platform. There can be no misunderstanding his eloquent words."

"Mr. Harding promises formal and effective peace as quickly as a Republican Congress can pass its declaration, and after that we may proceed deliberately and reflectively to a world relationship that would hold us free from menacing involvements." He describes the Wilson League of Nations as a military alliance which menaces peace and threatens freedom and says it was conceived for world super-government, negotiated in misunderstanding and intolently urged and demanded by its administration sponsors." He characterizes it as the "supreme blunder" and he stands securely upon the high and safe ground that "it is better to be the free and disinterested agent of international justice and advancing civilization, with covenant of conscience, than to be shackled by a written compact which surrenders our freedom of action and gives to a military alliance the right to proclaim America's duty to the world."

"Senator Harding is to be congratulated upon his firm and emphatic stand against the proposed league. His words strike an answering chord with every American. We now go to the solemn referendum of the people with our party pledges, our candidate boldly bearing aloft the standard of Americanism. Enthusiastically and overwhelmingly, our people will respond. Mr. Harding's position has made Republican success certain and his election assured."

Cut This Out And Take It With You

A man often forgets the exact name of the article he wishes to purchase, and as a last resort takes something else instead. That is always disappointing and unsatisfactory. The safe way is to cut this out and take it with you so as to make sure of getting Chamberlain's Tablets. You will find nothing quite so satisfactory for constipation and indigestion.

POLAND AIDED BY U. S. HARDING IS TOLD

FARMER-LABOR Candidate Asks Senator To Make Known Grave Responsibilities.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 24—Parley P. Christensen, Farmer-Labor candidate for President, tonight charged that thru "secret relations" between the United States and Poland many million dollars' worth of war material had been delivered to the latter country. This material, he said, was for use against the Russian Soviet government, and was paid for with long term Polish notes bearing five per cent interest.

The statements were made by Mr. Christensen in a telegram to Senator Harding, Republican nominee, calling on him to "employ your powerful position to acquaint the country with the immensely grave possibilities to America of a continuation of the administration's Polish-Russian policy." He was encouraged to make the request, he said, by a statement recently printed in a New York newspaper, quoting the senator as saying:

"It is no business of ours what form of government the Russian people choose."

Sends Telegram.

The telegram in part follows:

"You are undoubtedly aware that the administration has concealed from the people the facts of the immense financial loans to Poland and knowledge of its delivery of huge war stores to the Polish armies. If you are not, I can inform you that the War Department has provided the armies carrying on an offensive warfare against Russia with 4,600 freight cars, 3,500,000 pounds of corned beef, 5,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine and $53,000,000 worth of miscellaneous military equipment. *** The Navy Department has likewise delivered to Poland large quantities of materials for use in the Polish attack on Russia. Insolent refusal by Secretary Daniels to divulge word or facts has greeted requests for information as to these transactions.

Predicts Slaughter of Soldiers.

"The Polish legation at Washington has audaciously demanded a statement of American moral support of the Polish position, and the extension of further credits is imminent, according to the dispatches. In the event of a general European imperialist alliance behind Poland and against the Russian government, this republic involved as it already is, and more deeply involved as the administration obviously intends it to be, in the fate of the Polish imperialist adventure, must needs face the question of transporting an American army to be slaughtered in a merciless and insatiate Eastern European conflict. If you mean what you said about the right of the Russian people to choose their own government, I would ask you to exert your public influence, as I will exert my own, to compel the administration to reveal the full extent of its financial relations with the government of Poland and to reply to that government's demand for an expression of American moral support with a statement inviting the Poles and all other belligerents asking our sympathy to return to their proper boundaries and calling upon them to restore at once the peace of Europe."

Firestone

Sales of this tire have increased 96% the first six months of this year, proving the balanced tire, the Firestone 3½ has accomplished what Firestone sought for it, more mileage, greater economy, greater comfort, which has been passed on to the public at low cost—most miles per dollar.

Balanced! That means to you more than mere thickness of tread, greater air capacity, more plies of fabric, greater cushioning, or the gauge of the sidewall. It means that all component parts of the Firestone 3½ are scientifically balanced by specialists who have put years of study and practice into a single purpose—to meet your demand in a small car tire. You can now have all four tires on your car give uniform service if they are Firestone.

COULDN'T WALK UP AND DOWN STAIRS

Louisville Woman Is In Fine Health Now—Is Grateful To Tanlac.

"It was five years ago," said Mrs. Mattie Martin, 1710 Owen Street, Louisville, Ky., "that Tanlac restored my health and I am still feeling strong and well."

"Since that time Tanlac has been the favorite medicine with my family. We all take it occasionally and it keeps my children's cheeks red and rosy. In fact, Tanlac has been such a fine thing for us all that you might call us a regular Tanlac family."

"I was in a nervous run-down condition and for six months before I began taking Tanlac I was so weak I couldn't walk up and down the steps. In fact, I was almost a complete nervous wreck, couldn't sleep at night and even the children playing around would nearly drive me distracted. I had no appetite, and as fond as I am of certain kinds of vegetables I couldn't eat them, because my stomach was in such a bad condition. Nothing agreed with me and I felt so bad that life seemed hardly worth living."

"But my troubles soon disappeared when I got Tanlac, and six bottles made me feel like a new person. It built me up and strengthened me so I could do my work, something I had not been able to do in months, and I am just as strong and well to-day as one could ask to be. I sleep well at night, eat anything I want, do all my cooking, ironing, house cleaning and take care of my four children without any trouble at all. Now when any of the family complains of feeling bad I start them on Tanlac and it soon sets them right. I have found it a perfectly grand family medicine and can sincerely recommend it to everyone, especially those who are suffering as I did."

Tanlac is sold in Hartford by Dr. L. B. Bean, in Horse Branch by Olinton Drug Co., in Rockport by James Browning, in Cromwell by Wallace & Porter, in Beaver Dam by R. T. Taylor, Jr., and in McHenry, by S. J. Tichenor.—Advertisement.

ADMITS MURDER FOR WHICH FATHER DIED

Toronto, July 24.—A self-confessed murderer of his mother—a crime for which his father was hanged seven years ago—Arnell Love, 22, a Ceylon, Ont., farmer, lies in jail here today.

During evangelistic services in his home town Love went forward and declared to the evangelist that he had clubbed his mother to death because she had reprimanded him for "keeping bad company."

Young Love was one of the principal witnesses against his father, Henry Love, who was convicted by a jury and hanged at Owen Sound, Ont., for the crime seven years ago. While the evidence against him had been mostly circumstantial, on the scaffold the father made what was believed to be a confession of his guilt.

The son grew up into manhood, a prosperous farmer, and the tragedy of his life was apparently buried in the oblivion of the past until he attended the evangelistic service. He told the evangelist, the Rev. C. N. Sharpe, that when his mother reprimanded him he was angered and killed her with a stick of wood and hid the body in the cellar, where it was found later.

On advice of the evangelist, Love gave himself up to the police, who are investigating his story. In the meantime, the young farmer, apparently greatly relieved, languishes in jail, indifferent to his fate.

PROBE FOR CAUSE OF RAIL WALKOUT

Chicago, July 23.—Sixty railroad officers and union leaders today were subpoenaed to appear before the federal grand jury next Wednesday in connection with a probe of the unauthorized walkout of railroad workers here in April.

The subpoenas were issued at the request of Charles F. Clyne, United States District Attorney and Maj. E. Leroy Hume, special assistant attorney general, who, since his arrival here several days ago, has conferred with leaders of the recognized railroad brotherhoods.

Among those for whom subpoenas were issued were John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association and H. E. Redding, head of the United Enginemen's Association. These two organizations were formed at the time of the April walkouts.

Grunau and twenty-seven of his associates were arrested at that time charged with violation of the Lever act "with conspiracy to interfere with the interstate shipments of the necessities of life," and have been out on bail since, their hearings having been continued several times.

At the same time the subpoenas were being issued a delegation headed by Redding called upon Macay Hoyne, state's attorney, and protested against the alleged action of railroads in hiring young, inexperienced men and boys as switchmen. Redding said the railroads were filling places of strikers with boys, ranging in age from 13 to 16 years, and that accidents had increased recently, because of incompetence.

"The only law under which I can proceed is the child labor statute," the state's attorney said. "If that is being violated, proper action will be taken."

NEWSPRINT HAS ADVANCED 500 PER CENT

A current report of the Government Forest Service says that the larger newspaper publishers of the country have been able to keep down the advance in cost of their newsprint to about 200 per cent because of their ability to contract in large volume.

But the market price, according to the bulletin, has advanced 500 per cent since 1915. It is at this price that the small publisher is compelled to buy his paper stock.

Primarily the reason for the advance in paper is due to a wood shortage. In earlier days the paper mills were built in the lumber regions and their pulp wood was a sort of by-product of the saw milling industry. But in most of these regions the saw mills have finished, and they have packed up, burned out, or moved away for some other reason. But the paper mill cannot play the part of "carpet bagger" quite so easily, and as a result the north-eastern part of the United States has become largely dependent upon Canadian wood.

Spruce from Minnesota and Canada, for example, is being hauled from 700 to 1200 miles to Wisconsin paper mills. In New York state, where nearly fifty per cent of our newsprint is produced, sixty per cent of the pulp and paper mills have absolutely no timber supplies of their own. New Hampshire and Maine appear to be the only eastern states that still have raw materials for making paper and there is a well-grounded suspicion in the paper trade that the day of profiteering in spruce, hemlock, balsam and poplar is pretty well under way.

The big papers, in any event, are certainly eating up the little ones, and their "funny sheets," magazine sections and other irrelevant features add to the tragedy of the proceedings.

Loss of Appetite

As a general rule there is nothing serious about a loss of appetite, and if you skip a meal or only eat two meals a day for a few days you will soon have a relish for your meals when meal time comes. Bear in mind that at least five hours should always elapse between meals so as to give the food ample time to digest and the stomach a period of rest before a second meal is taken. Then if you eat no more than you crave and take a reasonable amount of outdoor exercise every day you will not need to worry about your appetite. When the loss of appetite is caused by constipation as is often the case, that should be corrected at once. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will do it.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President—
WARREN G. HARDING.
For Vice President—
CALVIN COOLIDGE.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Richard P. Ernst, of Covington, for U. S. Senator, from Kentucky, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce Marshall Duncan, of Springfield, as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in this district.
Primary Election, August 7, 1920.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of W. P. Hays, of Nelson County, for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of John P. Haswell, Jr., of Breckenridge County, for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The daily papers are alive with the announcements that a slump in prices is noted almost everywhere throughout the Country and inspection of the list upon which lower prices are to be noted, is without exception products of farmers.

Since it has developed that Georges Carpentier tied himself up in such a knot by contract before he came to this Country, that he could not, or said he could not fight Jack Dempsey, we have heard but little of the wiley Frenchman and correspondingly those who knocked so much on Dempsey's knocking on something else, wood perhaps.

In so far as it was in our power we had perfected arrangements, and had the promise of the delivery of Senator Harding's speech of acceptance in time to give it to our readers last week, but owing to some unexplainable miscarriage of the Burleson Postal System (not due to the local office) the matter was delivered to this office by the first mail received after we had gone to press.
The speech may be found on the last page of this issue, a week overdue but good just the same.

In the Yacht race for America's Cup, Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock was defeated by the American Defender, Resolute. Owing to the fact that the foreign boat won the first two races on "flukes" it was necessary that five races be run and the American craft won the last three races. Thus the trophy without intrinsic value, for the possession of which hundreds of thousands of dollars have been spent from time to time, for another year at least, remains the property of America.

We are surprised that the Courier-Journal and some other Democratic papers were disappointed in Harding's speech of acceptance. But when we come to think the matter over, remembering that Senator Harding and the Courier are as two crossed sticks an endorsement of any considerable portion of the speech was clearly out of the question, even allowing it as being tolerably respectable was not to be thought of in the mind of the Courier-Journal. While some of the great Democratic Dailies class the acceptance speech as a clear cut, master statement of his position splendidly rendered.

Democrats are blaming the Republicans with the war being carried on by the Russian Bolshevik, and other Reds and outlaws of Europe. Had Hughes been elected and Wilson defeated the war that America entered a short time after November 1916, would certainly have been charged to Hughes and the Republican party, and that too with as much rightful excuse as the Senate is chargeable with Europe's troubles of today. The Louisville Times says all of the disorder is a direct result of the partisan fight of the Republicans made on Wilson's Versailles Peace Treaty.
And we say and believe (whether ratification would have proven a cure or not) that the treaty could have and would have been ratified if it had not been for Wilson's stubborn stand to have the thing approved according to his own selfish notions or not at all. If any individual or individuals in the United States bears more blame for the unratified condition of the Treaty than anyone else it is solely chargeable to President Wilson and those who in a partisan manner blindly follow him and his minority in the face of the undisputed facts that the constitutional majority was and is not in favor of swallowing the Wilson mixture of Peace and League without some dilution. The desire for place, for power and absolute domination of the will of one man over a substantial majority who see things in a different manner, as they have a conscience, and a right, granted unto them by the constitution of the Republic is autocracy, or we don't know what it means. Bullying tactics and an unrelenting purpose of Wilson and of some who follow him in his desires to fasten his will, his handiwork if you please, upon the nation when it has clearly and beyond the shadow of doubt been shown that it is not wanted by the majority, is responsible for an unratified peace in so far as America is concerned. All the talk and charges of a partisan Senate blocking peace is mere gush, tommy rot, and if the day has come when a majority must surrender to one man rule let's disband, crown Wilson or Cox Emperor, or King, if it pleases them better and say unto him or them all power above and below is thine, we beg of you however, forever let us be thy serfs, for nothing higher do we crave, or have a right to ask.

Our neighbor, the Herald through its editor pealed our pelt in the current issue. The article infers that we classed all who favored the League as narrow minded, or hide bound partisans. Now, we didn't say any such a thing. We did say that unconditional acceptance of the League meant that we would be compelled to send our soldiers to Europe to take a part in all of their turmoils, both big and small, and that every person except he was a hide bound partisan would agree that unconditional acceptance meant that. We question no man's right to be for the Wilson League, neither do we, nor have we at any time questioned the sincerity of any who believe in it.
But we do object to the stand taken by you when you decline to submit to the action of a Senate majority,
whom you always class as Wilson haters, petty politicians, partisan peace blockers and other such names, never for once allowing that they may be as honest as those who favor unconditional ratification. We question no man's right to be for the Wilson League, neither do we, nor
have we at any time questioned the sincerity of any who believe in it.
But we do object to the stand taken
by you when you decline to submit to the action of a Senate majority,
whom you always class as Wilson
haters, petty politicians, partisan
peace blockers and other such names,
never for once allowing that they may be as honest as those who favor unconditional ratification. Your position, in not being willing to submit to a majority rule is unamerican and does not conform to the American ideas and ideals of good government.
(With apologies to the public for personalities) we wish to say further, that we most assuredly appreciate the fact that the Herald's editor thought that we may have been unpatriotic during the war and perhaps went about draped in the slimy garb of treason, as he secretly investigated us, put us to the test, but to his surprise and probably to his disappointment, he found that we did display patriotism during the war. The Herald Editor could have gone further (No reflection meant) and stated that while the then editor of the self-same Herald was drawing more than $4.00 per day from the Federal Government for work on the Exemption Board, we were handling all of the publicity matter for the Government, in Ohio County, barring the first in every drive made for floating bonds with which to secure money to prosecute the war, and that without remuneration, paying quite a bit of our own expenses with private funds and in addition to that every single line of paid advertising the Herald

STRAY STREAKS

(By Fluke McFluke.)

Harold Holbrook was in Louisville, some days ago, and while there Brooksie bought himself a hoss. The first time Harold touched the aforesaid hoss, he, the hoss to make a more ready acquaintance with his new owner laid-hold of one of his arms and before he could be shaken off or loose, he had the wing tolerably well bruised up.

Dock Carson purchased an auto some time ago and he and the boys Joseph and William, use the car to go down to their farm and back.
Billie says dad and Joe essay to all the driving, &c., but that they are what one generally would call raw amateurs. They undertook to crank the car up to come home the other day, they could do the cranking O. K., but somehow the thing wouldn't walk up and take hold of itself. They tried the carburetor, the spark plugs and everything that could be thought of, then they got a mule, tied it to the car and wore him out hauling it lying around. Finally Billie asked them something about the gasoline and when they made an examination the tank was as dry as Heg Casier.

There are a couple of cheap skates in this town who have recently slipped up to us and blew their breath in our face. Between onions, garlic and licoe, give us the former. We never were particularly fond of the latter, but lately we abhor the smell of it—on another man's breath.

Some day, Albert Cox, I. D. Clair, and that Hebrew Junk Dealer, are going to get together and when they do there won't be enough left of the fellow who strings those shoddy beads to pay his wife to have a burial, and should Cox and the Hebrew be haled into court over the matter a good square lock and a comparison one with the other and most any jury with pity in their hearts, would probably clear both for anything they could possibly do unto the stringer of cheap beads.

Richard Wright, who has been on

BEADS ODDLY STRUNG

Come up, Fluke. It could be worse. There is plenty of moonshine at sixty cents a shine, but they are said to be mighty small shines.

That sheeny junk dealer, whom I mistook for Albert Cox, by some streak of chance knew Cox, and is offering a reward of a hundred pounds of rags and five dozen rusty tin cans for anybody who will fetch me, dead or alive, to his junk store.

I told Ad Howard Fluke said Sim took to the sea like a dolphin, while visiting San Francisco. Ad said he knew Sims' aversion to water too well to believe such a story, but I saved Fluke's reputation by explaining sea water was too salty to drink.

I spend much time on street cars, swinging by a strap while the working girls monopolize the seats, and this big army of female industrial soldiers leads me to wonder where the babies of the future are to come from. It is true that babies are troublesome and expensive and a general nuisance, but they are a necessary evil, for there is no other material out of which to make another industrial army of working girls.

It isn't a disgrace for a girl to work, but it is a God's pity that the love of luxury drives them to it. All the fanatic reformers and fool friends of Woman's advancement can not obscure the immortal fact that woman's chief charm arises from her associations of motherhood and the home. By entering the industrial field, she has, indeed, enriched the purse but impoverished the heart of the world.

I have read too widely the history of the world to quarrel with the times in which I live. To run counter to the multitude is to butt one's head against a stone wall, yet running with the multitude we may note whether we are tending. Just now the world is mad with the lust for wealth and drunk with the wine of luxury. Women are drafted from their homes and children are conscripted from school to be ground in the mills of industrial production. The churches are losing their hold upon the people and their pews are empty. Immorality, altho more artfully concealed, is worming its way into every strata of society. All mankind hastens to worship at the gilded shrine of luxury. The practice of piety gives way to revelry, the strong exploit the weak, with the whole rushing headlong hellward till the crash comes, and then out of the ruins will necessity build a sadder and more enduring social fabric.

Speaking of things evil reminds me of Mark Twain's mention that every case must have two sides. He said that while nobody had undertaken Satan's defense, it must be true that there was something to say on the side of him who was the acknowledged leader of four-fifths of the people spiritually and all of them politically. For the evil tendencies of the times it may be said that falling is one of the most agreeable of experiences, and we don't feel the hurt till we hit.

FARM DEPARTMENT.

Removing Dirt From Various Wall Coverings.

Ordinary plastered and papered walls and ceilings should be cleaned with a wall brush or a broom covered with soft cloth, such as cotton flannel. Light overlapping strokes should be used; heavy strokes rub the dirt in. Cotton batting is good for cleaning places that soil more quickly than the rest—for example, the wall over radiators, registers, and stoves. The wall should be rubbed lightly with the cotton, which should be turned as it becomes soiled.

There are commercial pastes and powders for cleaning wall papers, but, in general, these should be applied only by an expert. An amateur is likely to have a streaked wall if he attempts to use them.

The so-called washable papers used in kitchens and bathrooms may be cleaned with a dampened cloth, but water must be used sparingly; if it seeps in, the paper will be loosened. Varnishing the paper in these rooms will make it more nearly impervious to moisture and steam and will prevent it from peeling, household specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture say.

Rough wall coverings, such as burlap, are hard to clean. The dust should be removed by brushing or with a vacuum cleaner.

Some painted walls may be washed, but as in the case of all painted surfaces the success with which this may be done depends largely on the kinds and quality of the paint. In the case of ordinary oil paint, the wall should be rubbed with even strokes, using a cloth wrung out of light suds, then rinsed with a cloth wrung out with clear water, and wiped with a dry, soft cloth. If the paint is badly soiled and stained, a fine scourer, such as whiting, may be used.

Enamel paint (that is, paint mixed with varnish, which gives a hard, smooth surface and does not catch or hold dust so easily) is dulled by soap. Such paint may be cleaned by rubbings first with a woolen or cotton flannel cloth, wrung out of hot water, and then with a clean, dry cloth. Spots, stains, and dirt that will not yield to hot water alone may be removed with a fine scourer, but it must be applied lightly in order not to scratch the surface.

Calcined walls can not be washed nor can they even be rubbed with a dry cloth without streaking the finish. Recoating is for this reason preferable to cleaning.

Tobacco Worm Makes Appearance

The tobacco worm has made its appearance already and must be treated promptly to obtain the best results and according to the best reports in the research, arsenate of lead is the most satisfactory insecticide. Arsenate of lead is safe and effective and not disagreeable to handle.

The use of Paris Green has been the generally used insecticide for many seasons but arsenate of lead controls the worm more satisfactorily. It adheres to the tobacco longer and rarely causes any burning of the plant even when used to excess, and causes very little irritation to the skin as the farm hand sprays the crop. Arsenate of lead is safe and effective in rainy weather. It is applied at the rate of 3½ pounds an acre in powdered form and should be put on with a dust gun that is large enough to make force of air so strong that the lead will stick on the leaves.

A dust gun, with a small fan, wastes the insecticide. Dust the plant when there is no breeze and when the dew is on the plant. A good hand can dust ten acres of tobacco plants a day. The arsenate of lead is a deadly poison to the hornworm and, altho it works comparatively slowly, it is sure.

Cornroot Aphid Serious This Year.

Lexington, Ky., July 24, 1920.—The common aphid, found in the corn belt every season has already made its appearance and has been active in the corn crops in central Kentucky. An investigation of six or seven corn crops in Taylorville, Spencer County, has resulted in the realization that the lice are unusually effective this year. The stalks are yellowish in color and stunted in growth and are injured before they are 18 inches high. H. H. Jewett, of the department of entomology, College of Agriculture, made the Spencer County investigation.

The life history of the aphid shows that it depends upon the brown field ant so the task for the farmer is to get rid of the ant. This may be accomplished by strict rotation of crops and especially to not plant corn in the same field two consecutive years. The methods to follow in culturing are in the spring; plow deep (about six or seven inches) and follow by several diskings of three or four inches deep. Old corn fields should be treated the same way in the fall. The early part of the season the aphid feeds on the smart weed, crab grass, fox tail and other weeds. When it has once started its work nothing can stop it entirely but frequent cultivations will retard its work and after the plant is above 18 inches high the injury cannot be serious.

The work of the corn root aphid is of community interest and Farmers' bulletin 891, covering the subject, can be had at the Kentucky Experiment Station.

"Cure Alls"—Kill

Many of the "cure alls" for horses that will expell worms, prevent disease and stimulate the appetite contain a large amount of salt, copper and iron. An over dose may result in sudden death if the preparation contains salt and it is given to the horse in soft slop or water. Iron and copper are irritating to the stomach and intestines. If they are taken in too large an amount, poisoning and sudden death result or if long continued even in small amounts, they will cause a gastroenteritis that if not fatal will interfere with digestion and expose the animal to infection by bacteria that may be in the digestive tract.

So called stock tonics and stock foods are not essential to success in animal feeding; their cost is out of proportion to their value; they contain much substance that is valueless; many are injurious and the national feed is great. If salt is necessary, feed it in pure form or purchase the ingredients of the tonic recommended by the stock tonic agent, and give it on the advice of a veterinarian. If the animal is sick, find out the disease and treat accordingly. If it is a case of improper feeding, find out what is needed. Agricultural Experiment Stations maintain departments that are working on these problems. The whole question outside of disease is a matter of nutrition. The expert in animal husbandry on feeds and feeding and the workers in animal nutrition are in the position to advise live stock owners in this regard.

Sudan Grass Experiment.

Sudan grass sown on the Kentucky Experiment Station farm this year, on a small area, impressed the growers very favorably. Hogs were turned in on it about the middle of June when it was six inches high and they ate it down and they ate it in preference to rape. They were taken off a few days before the first of July and the grass has sprouted up nicely, despite the dry condition of the soil.

While the agronomists do not give the Sudan grass unqualified recommendation on this short trial they see no reason that it would not fill a long felt want as a hog pasture crop for late summer when other pasture crops are not available. Where the Sudan grass is sown early, a hay crop can be out in early July, and the second growth used for hog pasture. Sudan grass sown in May, was nearly waist high July 1st. It was grown on rich land. Hogs should be ringed before turning into a Sudan grass pasture or they will injure the stand by rooting.

Use Less Sugar In Jellies and Jams.

One-fifth to one-quarter less sugar can be used in making jelly and jams, experiments made by household experts in the United States Department of Agriculture experimental kitchen indicate.

Another sugar-saving wrinkle tested by the experiment kitchen is to add one-quarter teaspoon of salt to each cup of fruit juice for jelly or pulp for jam, marmalade and conserve. In the case of nonacid fruit this makes the absence of the full amount of sugar less noticeable. The salty taste will disappear after the product has stood for a few weeks, but the flavor will be much the richer for the addition of the salt. Salt was so used in England during the war, and the method suggested was based on reports of the process.

With fruits of pronounced flavor, or where lemon and orange peel or spices are used for flavoring those with mild flavor, various syrups take the place of part of the granulated sugar. Usually half and half is the proportion used in substitution.

When you feel lazy, out of sorts and yawn a good deal in the daytime, you can charge it to a torpid liver which has allowed the system to get full of impurities. HERBINE cures all disorders produced by an inactive liver. It strengthens that organ, cleanses the bowels and puts the system in good, healthy condition. Price 60c. Sold by Ohio County Drug Company.

WOMAN 107 YEARS OLD FALLS, DEATH RESULTS

(Louisville Herald.)

Mrs. Eliza Jordan, probably the oldest woman in Kentucky, died at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the City Hospital, where she was taken after a fall several weeks ago when she suffered a fractured hip and other injuries that indirectly resulted in her death. Mrs. Jordan was 107 years old.

Mrs. Jordan was a member of a family noted for its longevity and a direct descendant of an Indian chieftain.

She was a native of Carroll County, having come to Louisville twenty-one years ago. She made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Mary Howard, 729 Franklin street.

Mrs. Jordan was twice married, her first husband being William Harrison Sampson, who died more than sixty years ago, while her second husband was J. W. Jordan, veteran of the Mexican War, who died thirty-eight years ago.

Summer Complaint Quickly Relieved.

"About two years ago when suffering from a severe attack of summer complaint, I took Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it relieved me almost instantly," writes Mrs. Henry Jewett, Clark Mills, N. Y. This is an excellent remedy for colic and diarrhoea and should be kept at hand by every family.

SERUM FROM PATIENT'S OWN BLOOD TABES CURE

Paris, July 24.—A serum obtained from the patient's own blood, is claimed by Professor Odin, of the Pasteur Institute, to be a positive cure for all cases of paralysis, locomotor ataxia and tabes. Dr. Odin has been experimenting on this research for more than seven years, in the course of which he has made more than a thousand experiments.

Two hundred and fifty centimeters of blood are taken from the patient's arm, separated into serum and red corpuscles, and a portion of each is heated several times to various temperatures.

With the resulting serum the patient is inoculated, and cures are claimed in almost every instance. The injections are made either into muscular tissues or into the spinal fluid itself.

No drugs nor anesthetics are used and there is said to be no danger whatever to the patient.

TRAGIC ACCIDENT

MAY BE MURDER

Evansville, Ind., July 23.—The police today started to investigate the mysterious shooting yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Joseph Brown, living near the city. While picking blackberries in a field near her home, Mrs. Brown was struck in the forehead by a rifle ball and she was carried home, where a physician dressed her wound. Her condition is regarded as serious. The wound was caused from a .22-calibre rifle. No report of the rifle was heard and the police believe there was a silencer on the rifle and that the deed was premeditated and probably was committed by some enemy of the Brown family.

REDS OFFER CROWN JEWELS TO HOLLAND

Most Magnificent Collection Shunned By The Dutch.

Earl Shaub, in Louisville Herald. Chicago, July 24.—After being captured by pirates while at sea, Miss Katherine Dokcochief, a Russian refugee, has arrived in Chicago, with the story of an attempt of the Bolsheviks to sell the imperial crown jewels to the government of Holland.

"The Lenin government hopes to realize many millions from the sale of the gorgeous gems, looted after the flight of the unfortunate czar and czarina," said the girl today. "Holland will have nothing to do with the jewels, realizing that their purchase might be construed as openly countenancing Bolshevism."

STONES NOW IN GERMANY.

"The gems, which constitute one of the choicest collections of jewels in the world, are now in Germany and the negotiations for their sale are being carried on secretly."

The girl said her father was a large landowner in Samara. Late in 1918 the land was confiscated and the family was scattered in its flight. All went to Siberia except the girl and she has not heard from any of them since except thru refugees who told her of the strangling of an aunt.

Continuing her story she said:

"I made my way to the American Red Cross camp for Russian refugees on Princess Island, off Constantinople and secured food and lodging for a week. Then I got passage to Marseilles.

SHIP LOOTED BY PIRATES.

"Between Batum and Marseilles our ship was attacked by brigands who held the captain prisoner and took everything of value from the passengers.

"It is good to be in America. Conditions are distressing in Russia. Seventy-five per cent of the population is suffering from disease or massacres. The churches in Russia have been subjected to the vilest indignities. Cigarettes are stuck in the mouths of the images by the Bolsheviks and horses and cattle are housed in the church buildings."

HOW'S THIS FOR LUCK?

Paris, Ky., July 23.—An automobile belonging to L. T. Watson was stolen from near the Paris Opera House Saturday night. After the police had exhausted their resources in an endeavor to locate it and advertisements in the newspapers had failed, Mr. Watson yesterday afternoon consulted a fortune-teller, who told him to return home and that his machine would be found near his home at daylight. Mr. Watson began a search and was awarded by finding his machine on Twelfth street, within two blocks of his residence. It had been left there during the night.

It is a wholesome remedy, contains no opium, morphine or injurious drug of any kind. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by Ohio County Drug Co.

GREAT NEGRO EXODUS SEEN IN GEORGIA CENSUS

Albany, Ga., July 24.—The seriousness of the negro migration from South Georgia is beginning to be visualized here as the returns from the 1920 census are published. Figures on Quitman and Clay counties show the former has lost more than 25 per cent of its population in ten years and the latter 15 per cent. It is known that no serious emigration of the white population has occurred in the last decade, and the only explanation is found in negroes leaving in large numbers.

UNIVERSITY MANAGED WELL INSPECTOR SAYS

Frankfort, Ky., July 23.—An exceedingly clean bill was given the management of the University of Kentucky in the report on the university made today to Governor Morrow by State Inspector and Examiner Henry

E. James. While some slight criticisms were made, as a whole the report is complimentary of the management, which Inspector James says is "capable, careful and painstaking, and enforcing rigid economy."

The old mess hall, now used as a girls' gymnasium is a frame structure and an eye sore to the premises, he said. He recommends that it should be either repaired or torn down and replaced with a brick building. The power plant, he said, is a disgrace to the institution, being unsightly and insufficient. Many minor repairs should be made and paint, he said, is needed on all the buildings.

WE WOULD QUIT

HOW ABOUT YOU?

Boston, July 23.—David Nicoll Cant, 37 years old and a bachelor, working for a farmer in Boylston, Mass., who was notified today that he gets half of the $2,000,000 estate left by his father in Scotland, is just about the coolest and most collected individual in Boylston. All the rest of the town is so excited about David's $1,000,000 windfall that it can think and talk about little else.

But David has been in this country some twenty years, nine of which he has put in farming, so is not easily excited. All Boylston looked for David to pick up and start for Scotland immediately. But David couldn't see it that way.

He had hired out to Farmer Stark and if ever his boss needed a hired man it is just now, when labor is so scarce and high-priced, with one of the biggest hay crops in years waiting to be gathered.

David declares he will see his boss through the haying season, anyway, and perhaps longer. He feels sure that the fortune in Scotland will not lose anything by a little waiting. Once the crops are gathered and Mr. Stark says it's all right. David will start for the homeland.

TERRIFIC CYCLONE HITS NORTH DAKOTA

Minneapolis, July 23.—A tornado that swept thru McHenry County, N. D., tonight, took toll of between eight and ten lives and caused heavy property damage, according to a dispatch from Devils Lake.

The village of Drae was in the path of the storm and many buildings were wrecked. Three lives were reported lost there. Five other persons were said to have been killed in the vicinity.

The storm tore down telegraph and telephone wires and communication with large sections of the country has been cut off. It was feared additional reports would increase the death toll.

Fields of ripening wheat were mowed down, according to the report received tonight.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

All persons having claims against the estate of G. V. Wise, deceased, are hereby notified to present same to me properly proven on or before August 15, 1920, at my residence near Simmons, Ky., or they will be forever barred.

This 7 day of July, 1920.

Q. B. BROWN, Adm'r of G. V. Wise, deceased.

After the Democratic nomination of the Murphyized national ticket William Jennings Bryan says that his heart is in the grave. But the world famed democratic party of Woodrow Wilson, the proud and bloodied democratic party of the South, the scarred and seasoned democratic party of the West—the very flower of national democracy—is inside the Tammany Tiger of Charles F. Murphy.

At the beginning of April rumors circulated in Budapest that a certain amateur speculator was in a position to sell foreign money at about eighty crowns below the ordinary rate of exchange. Business men were incredulous at first, but an order for the equivalent of a million crowns ($200,000) was promptly carried out, and the news was carefully spread. Jellinek declared that he could procure any sum of money, as he was well acquainted with the Entente officers stationed in Budapest.

"But in this year of 1920 the Tammany Tiger of Charles F. Murphy stalks clear across the country to San Francisco and there in the convention behind the Golden Gate swallows the democratic party whole."

In the middle of May his agents circulated the news that Jellinek was starting a trip abroad for foreign

RAILROADS SEEK O. K. TO RAISE PRICES

Board Claims $626,000,000 Must Be Raised To Cover Deficit Made by Late Wage Advance.

Washington, July 22.—To provide the additional revenues necessary to meet the $600,000,000 increase in wages awarded by the Railroad Labor Board, the railroads of the country proposed today to the Interstate Commerce Commission that passenger rates be advanced 20 per cent and freight rates 9.13 per cent, in addition to the 27.6 per cent previously requested. They also proposed that a surcharge of 50 per cent be made on Pullman fares, excess baggage rates be increased 20 per cent and milk tariffs be increased to the same level as freight rates.

Should the increases proposed today and those previously asked for be granted in full, existing freight rates would be advanced 26.9 per cent and the nation's freight bill by $1,355,379,675. The total which would be added to the passenger revenue under the railway executives' plan would be $233,827,982 annually. Pullman charges would go up $43,639,344 a year; the revenue on milk would be increased $8,662,089, and excess baggage charges would be advanced by $1,420,895.

Plan Presented.

The plan presented by the railroad executives disclosed that they have estimated the wage award at approximately $626,000,000 instead of $600,000,000 figured by the labor board.

Alfred P. Thom, general counsel of the Association of Railway Executives, explained that the $26,000,000 additional was figured on the basis of overtime allowances provided in the award.

The proposal of the executives was submitted to the commission by Mr. Thom after a conference with its members. The commission made no comment on receiving the proposal and did not indicate whether it would order hearings.

Hearings on the billion-dollar freight rate increase case were concluded two weeks ago and the general expectation has been that the commission would grant a single increase to cover both that and the added expenses resulting from the wage advances so as to permit the filing of the new tariffs before the government guarantee to the railroads expires on September 1, under the terms of the transportation act.

The total increases from all sources of revenue in each of the three railroad classification territories would correspond to the estimated increase of wages in those territories and would be as follows:

Eastern, $318,729,935; southern, $69,909,495, and western, $237,281,555.

Under the executives' estimate the proposed increase in passenger rates would yield an annual return of $11,668,982 in eastern territory, $29,326,400 in southern and $92,332,599 in western.

The additional increase in freight rates would be 10 per cent in eastern territory, yielding $182,020,541; 8.5 per cent in southern territory, yielding $33,798,969 and 8.23 per cent in western territory, yielding $122,551.20.

The total increase in freight rates resulting from the two proposals of the railroads would be 39.75 per cent in eastern territory, 38.91 in southern territory and 32.03 in western territory.

The surcharge on Pullman fares in the east would be $17,556,108 in the south $5,852,036 and in the west $20,931,200.

The increased charge on hauling milk would be $6,958,416 in the east, $252,115 in the south and $1,453,558 in the west.

The increased excess baggage charge was estimated at $278,888 in the east $180,017 in the south and $713,090 in the west.

KING SWINDLER BROKE BANKS AND OFFICIALS

Budapest, July 24.—The greatest swindle on record has been discovered here. A high Hungarian official named Martin Jellinek, who was one of the prime minister's entourage, cheated a number of people, including skillful money speculators, of 450,000,000 crowns (nominally $90,000,000), and absconded with a forged British passport.

At the beginning of April rumors circulated in Budapest that a certain amateur speculator was in a position to sell foreign money at about eighty crowns below the ordinary rate of exchange. Business men were incredulous at first, but an order for the equivalent of a million crowns ($200,000) was promptly carried out, and the news was carefully spread. Jellinek declared that he could procure any sum of money, as he was well acquainted with the Entente officers stationed in Budapest.

"But in this year of 1920 the Tammany Tiger of Charles F. Murphy stalks clear across the country to San Francisco and there in the convention behind the Golden Gate swallows the democratic party whole."

In the middle of May his agents circulated the news that Jellinek was starting a trip abroad for foreign money and would return in June. Bankers, aristocrats, wealthy women and officials placed nearly 500,000 crowns ($100,000,000) at his disposal. They are still looking for the swindler.

There is no clew regarding his whereabouts. The only fact established is that he went away with 450,000,000 crowns. Two banks have lost 600,000,000 crowns ($12,000,000) each. One woman, who lost her whole fortune, committed suicide.

MINERS ARE ON STRIKE

Chicago, July 22.—Strikes of day laborers in the Southern Illinois coal fields with demands for higher wages today had closed more than 20 mines in the important Franklin County coal fields. Reports from the district around Belleville said approximately 12,000 men were idle.

The day laborers, including drivers, timber men and pump men, average $5.50 per day and are demanding $2 per day increase.

100 ARRESTED IN FIGHT ON KANSAS CITY CRIME WAVE

Kansas City, Mo., July 24.—Police raided the Italian quarter of Kansas City late this afternoon and arrested more than 100 men in a campaign to stamp out a crime wave which culminated today in a daring daylight payroll holdup and a warehouse robbery, in which one bandit was shot dead. All were held without bond, pending investigation.

LETTS' GRANDPARENTS

Hatboro, July 24.—Mrs. J. R. Snyder, of this borough, has a great-granddaughter living in Newfield, N. J., who claims to have more living relatives than anyone in the state. She is Hazel Letts. She has one grandfather, two grandmothers, three great-grandfathers and two great-grandmothers, one eighty-two years old, and a great-great-grandmother, who is 104 years of age.

AMERICANS RID GUAYAQUIL OF YELLOW FEVER PLAQUE

New York, July 24.—Yellow fever experiments conducted at Guayaquil, Ecuador, by the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research have rid that notorious seed-bed of the disease for the past thirteen months. Guayaquil had not been free of the menace since 1912.

The technique developed in handling the scourge in Ecuador will be of world-wide benefit in reducing mortality. Dr. Hideyo Noguchi, institute bacteriologist, conducted the research at Guayaquil.

One of the problems connected with the settlement of the Jews in Palestine is that of keeping the land out of speculation. It is proposed to apply the land laws of Moses for that purpose.

SEES HUSBAND KILLED; SHOCK CAUSES INSANITY

Smith Center, Kan., July 24.—Seeing a haystack fall upon her husband as a result of which he sustained fatal injuries, was too much for Mrs. E. K. Davis, wife of a prominent farmer of this county. Shortly following the accident she became violently insane and had to be removed to the state hospital.

NOTICE.

Of Letting Ditch Contract, H. A. Ashby by District.

The undersigned Board of Drainage Commissioners of Ohio county, Kentucky, will on Monday, the 2nd day of August, 1920, at 1 o'clock p.m., at the court house door in Hartford, Ohio county, Kentucky, let to the lowest and best bidder, at public outcry, the construction of a public ditch in said county, known as the H. A. Ashby ditch, beginning at a small bridge on the Hartford and Ross' Ripple road, and the corner between Sallie B. Ashby and H. A. Ashby in line of R. & I. Ashby, and terminating at a point on Walton's Creek, on the land of Alva Calloway, about 1,662 feet, with its meanders, from the mouth of said creek, following the directions set out in the judgment of the Ohio County Court, in the action of H. A. Ashby, et al. Petition for Ditch or Drain, now pending in said court, a distance of 6,673 feet. It is estimated that there will be 14,007.06 cubic yards of earth, etc., to be excavated and the total estimated cost thereof is $4,202.12. Said work to be completed on or before Jan. 1, 1921.

Bond with approved security will be required as soon as bid is accepted. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to let the contract for said work in sections or as a whole, as they may see fit.

This July 23, 1920.

BOARD OF DRAINAGE COMMISSIONERS OF OHIO COUNTY.

By S. T. BARNETT, President.

Attest:

lows:

Chairman Lodge, Members of Notification Committee, Members of National Committee, Ladies and Gentlemen: The message which you have so nobly conveyed brings to me a realization of responsibility which is not underestimated. It is a supreme task to interpret. The covenant of a great political party, the activities of which are woven into the history of this nation, and a very sacred and solemn undertaking to utter the faith and aspirations of the many millions who believe in that party. The party platform has charted the way, yet, sometimes, we have come to expect that interpretation which voices the faith of men and women who must assume specific responsibilities.

That must be understood clearly from the very beginning. I believe in party representatives in government. I believe in a party government as distinguished from personal government, individual, dictatorial, autocratic or what not.

The man is big enough to run this great Republic. There never has been such domination as never in history.
Tranquillity, stability, dependability—all are assured in party sponsorship, and we mean to renew the commitments which were rended in the constitutional war.

Our first commitment is the restoration of representative popular government, under the constitution, through the agency of the Republican party. Our platform includes more than a chief executive. We believe in a cabinet of representatives, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, the whose counsels the vice president, second official of the republic, shall be assured to participate. The same vision which includes a cordial understanding and cooperative activities with a house of Congress, fresh from the people, voice-ing the convictions which members have from direct contact with the electorate, and cordial co-operation along with the restored functions of the Senate, is to be the greatest deliberative body of the world.

It is not difficult, Chairman Lodge, to make ourselves clear on the questions of international relationship. We negotiators of the Senate, conscious of our solemn oaths and mindful of our international obligations, when we open the structure of a world super-government taking visionary form, should be a becoming warning of our devotion to this republic. If the torch of unconstitutionalism had not been burned, the delayed peace of the world and the tragedy of disappointment and misunderstanding of American sanity might have been avoided.
The Republicans of the Senate halted the career of independent eminence and influence, which it was proposed to exchange for an obscure and unenviable place in the merged government of the world. Our party means to keep the heritage of American nationality unimpaired and unsullied.

The world will not misconstrue, we do not mean to hold aloof. We do not mean to shun a single responsibility of this republic to world civilization.
There is no hate in the American heart.
We have no envy, no suspicion, no animosity for any people in the world.
We hold to our rights and mean to defend, save, we mean to sustain the rights of this nation and our citizens abroad, everywhere under the shining sun. Yet there is the concord of unity and sympathy and fraternity in every convention. There is a genuine aspiration in every American breast for a universal friendship with all the world.
One may readily sense the conscience of America. I am sure I understand the purpose of the dominant group of the Senate. We were not desirous to defeat a world aspiration, we were resolved to safeguard America. We were resolved then, even as we are today, and will be tomorrow, to preserve this free and independent republic.

In the call of the conscience of America is peace, peace that closes the gaping wound of world war, and silences the impulsive voices of international envy and distrust. Heeding this call and knowing, as I do, the disposition of the Congress, I promise you universal and effective peace so quickly as a Republican Congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign.

It is better to be the free and disinterested agent of international justice and advancing civilization with the covenant of conscience than be shackled by a written compact which surrenders our freedom of action and gives to a military alliance the right to proclaim America's duty to the world. No surrender of rights to a world council or its military alliance, no assumed mandatory, however appealing, ever shall summon the sons of this republic to war. Their supreme sacrifice shall only be asked for America and its call of honor. There is a sanctity in that right we will not delegate.

Disposed as we are, the way is very simple. Let the failure attending assumption, obstinacy, impracticability and delay be recognized, and let us find the big, practical, unselfish way to do our part, neither covetous because of ambition nor hesitant through fear, but ready to serve ourselves, humanity and God.
With a Senate advising as the constitution contemplates, I would hopefully approach the nations of Europe and of the earth, proposing that understanding which makes us a willing participant in the consecration of nations to a new relationship, to commit the moral forces of the world, America included, to peace and international justice, still leaving America free, independent and self-reliant, but offering friendship to all the world.

It is folly to close our eyes to outstanding facts. Humanity is restive, much of the world is in revolution, the agents of discord and destruction have wrought their tragedy in pathetic Russia, have lighted their torches among other peoples and hope to see America as a part of the great red conflagration.
Ours is the temple of liberty under the law and it is ours to call the sons of opportunity to its defense.
America must not only save herself,

WARREN G.
HARDING
PRESIDENT

but ours must be the appealing voice to sober the world.

It must be understood that toil alone makes for accomplishment and advancement, and righteous possession is the reward of toil and its incentive.
There is no progress except in the stimulus of competition.

The chief trouble today is that the World War wrought the destruction of healthful competition, left our store-houses empty, and there is a minimum production when our need is maximum.

Maximums, not minimums, is the call of America. It isn't a new story, because war never fails to leave depleted storehouses and always impairs the efficiency of production. War also establishes its higher standards for wages and they abide. I wish the higher wage to abide on one explicit condition—that the wage earner will give full return for the wage received.

I want, somehow, to appeal to the sons and daughters of the republic, to every producer, to join hand and brain in production, more production, honest production, patriotic production, because patriotic production is no less a defense of our best civilization than that of armed force. Profiteering is a crime of commission; under production is a crime of omission. We must work our most and best, else the destructive reaction will come.

The menacing tendency of the present day is not chargeable wholly to the unsettled and fevered conditions caused by the war. The manifest weakness in popular government lies in the temptation to appeal to grouped citizenship for political advantage.

It would be the blindness of folly to ignore the activities in our own country, which are aimed to destroy our economic system and to commit us to the colossal tragedy which has destroyed all freedom and made Russia impotent. This movement is not to be halted in throttled liberties. We must not abridge the freedom of speech, the freedom of the press or the freedom of assembly, because there is no promise in repression. These liberties are as sacred as the freedom of religious belief, as inviolable as the rights of life and the pursuit of happiness. We do not hold the right to crush sedition, to stifle a menacing contempt for law, to stamp out a peril to the safety of the republic or its people when emergency calls, because security and the majesty of the law are the first essentials of liberty. He who threatens destruction of the government by force or flaunts his contempt for lawful authority ceases to be a loyal citizen and forfeits his rights to the freedom of the republic.

No party is indifferent to the welfare of the wage earner. To us his good fortune is of deepest concern and we seek to make that good fortune permanent.
We do not oppose but approve collective bargaining, because that is an outstanding right, but we are unalterably insistent that its exercise must not destroy the equally sacred right of the individual, in his necessary pursuit of livelihood. Any American has the right to quit his employment; so has every American the right to seek employment. The group must not endanger the individual and we must discourage groups preying upon one another and none shall be allowed to forget that the government's obligations are alike to all the people.

We are so confident that much of the present day insufficiency and inefficiency of transportation are due to the withering hand of government operation that we emphasize anew our opposition to government ownership. We want to expedite the reparation and make sure the mistake is not repeated.

A state of inadequate transportation facilities, mainly chargeable to the failure of governmental experiment, is losing millions to agriculture; it is hindering industry; it is menacing the American people with a fuel shortage little less than a peril. It emphasizes the present-day problem and suggests that spirit of encouragement and assistance which commits all America to relieve such an emergency.

Gross expansion of currency and credit have depreciated the dollar just as expansion and inflation have discredited the coins of the world. We inflated in haste, we must deflate in deliberation. We debased the dollar in reckless finance, we must restore in honesty.

In all sincerity, we promise the prevention of unreasonable profits, we challenge profiteering with all the moral force and the legal powers of government and people; but it is fair, aye, it is timely, to give reminder that law is not the sole corrective of our economic ills.

Let us call to all the people for thrift and economy, for denial and sacrifice if need be, for a nation-wide drive against extravagance and luxury to a recommittal to simplicity of living, to that prudent and normal plan of life which is the health of the republic.

New conditions which attend amazing growth and extraordinary industrial development, call for a new and forward looking program. The American farmer had a hundred and twenty millions to feed in the home market, and heard the cry of the world for food and answered it, though he faced an appalling task amid handicaps never encountered before.

Contemplating the defenselessness of the individual farmer to meet the organized buyers of his products and the distributors of the things the farmer buys, I hold that farmers should not only be permitted but encouraged to join in co-operative association to reap the just measure of reward merited by their arduous toil.

Our platform is an earnest pledge of renewed concern for this most essential and elemental industry and in both appreciation and interest we pledge effective expression in law and practice. We will hail that co-operation which again will make profitable and desirable the ownership and operation of comparatively small farms intensively cultivated, and which will facilitate the caring for the products of farm and orchard without the lamentable waste under present conditions.

America would look with anxiety on the discouragement of farming activity either through the government neglect or its paralysis by socialistic practices. A Republican administration will be committed to renew regard for agriculture and seek the participation of farmers in curing the ills justly complained of and aim to place the American farm where it ought to be, highly ranked in American activities, and fully sharing the highest good fortunes of American life.

Beconingly associated with this subject are the policies of irrigation and reclamation so essential to agricultural expansion and the continued development of the great and wonderful West.
It is our purpose to continue and enlarge federal aid, not in sectional partiality, but for the good of all America.
I believe the budget system will effect a necessary helpful reformation and reveal business methods to government business.

I believe federal departments should be made more businesslike and send back to productive effort thousands of federal employees who are either duplicating work or not essential at all.

I believe in the protective tariff policy and know we will be called for its saving Americanism again.

I believe in a great merchant marine.
I would have this republic the leading maritime nation of the world.

I believe in a navy ample to protect it and able to assure us dependable defense.

I believe in a small army, but the best in the world, with a mindfulness for preparedness which will avoid the utterable cost of our previous neglect.

I believe in our eminence in trade abroad, which the government should aid in expanding, but in revealing markets and speeding cargoes.

I believe in establishing standards for immigration which are concerned with the future citizenship of the republic, not with mere man power in industry.

I believe that every man who dons the garb of American citizenship and walks in the light of American opportunity must become American in heart and soul.

I believe in holding fast to every forward step in unshackling child labor and elevating conditions of womanen's employment.

I believe the federal government should stamp out lynching and remove that stain from the fair name of America.

I believe the federal government

SALIENT POINTS IN SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

"I pledge fidelity to our country and to God and accept the nomination of the Republican party for the Presidency of the United States."

"The human element comes first, and I want the employers in industry to understand the aspirations, the convictions, the yearnings of millions of American wage earners."

"The constitution contemplates no class and recognizes no group.
It broadly includes all the people, with specific recognition for none."

"We approve collective bargaining."

"Cross expansion of currency and credit has depreciated the dollar. We will attempt intelligent and courageous deflation."

"When competition—natural, fair impelling competition—is suppressed, whether by law, compact or conspiracy, we halt the march of progress, silence the voice of aspiration and paralyze the will for achievement."

"I promise you formal and effective peace so quickly as a Republican Congress can pass its declarations for a Republican executive to sign."

"I can hear the call of conscience an insistent voice for largely reduced armaments throughout the world."

"Our vision includes more than a chief executive. We believe in a cabinet of highest capacity equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, in whose counsels the vice-president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate."

should give its effective aid in solving the problem of ample and becoming housing of its citizenship.

I believe this government should make its liberty and victory bonds worth all that its patriotic citizens paid in purchasing them.

I believe the tax burdens imposed for the war emergency must be revised for the needs of peace, and in the interest of equity in distribution of the burden.

I believe the negro citizens of America should be guaranteed the enjoyment of all their rights, that they have earned the full measure of citizenship bestowed, that their sacrifices in blood on the battlefields of the Republic have entitled them to all of freedom and opportunity, all of sympathy and aid that the American spirit of fairness and justice demands.

I believe there is an easy and open path to righteous relationship with Mexico. It has seemed to me that our undeveloped, uncertain and infirm policy has made us a culpable party to the governmental misfortunes in that land.
Our relations ought to be both friendly and sympathetic; we would like to acclaim a stable government there, and offer a neighborly hand-in-pointing the way to greater progress.

I believe in law enforcement. If elected I mean to be a constitutional president, and it is impossible to ignore the Constitution, unthinkable to evade the law when our every committal is to orderly government.

The four million defenders on land and sea were worthy of the best traditions of a people never warlike in peace and never pacifist in war. They commanded our pride, they have our gratitude, which must have genuine expression. It is not only a duty, it is a privilege to see that the sacrifices made shall be requited and that those still suffering from casualties and disabilities shall be abundantly aided and restored to the highest capabilities of citizenship and its enjoyment.

The womanhood of America, always its glory, its inspiration and the potent, uplifting force in its social and spiritual development, is about to be enfranchised. In so far as Congress can go, the fact is already accomplished.

By party edict, by my recorded vote, by personal conviction, I am committed to this measure of justice. It is my earnest hope, my sincere desire, that the one needed state vote be quickly recorded in the affirmation of the right of equal suffrage and that the vote of every citizen shall be cast and counted in the approaching election.

And to the great number of noble women who have opposed in conviction this tremendous change in the ancient relation of the sexes as applied to government, I venture to plead that they will accept the full responsibility of enlarged citizenship and give to the best in the republic their suffrage and support.

Ours is not only a fortunate people, but a very common sensible people, with vision high, but their feet on the earth, with belief in themselves and faith in God. Whether enemies threaten without or menaces arise from within, there is some indefinable voice saying, "Have confidence in the republic; America will go on."

Old Use of Mirrors.

Mirrors were used by Anglo-Saxon women, slung to their girdles. The same custom obtained in the time of Elizabeth and James I. They formed the center of many fashions at that period.

Before glass was invented horn was used.

Massage for Deafness.

Hearing has been restored to more than two-thirds of his accidentally deafened patients by a French physician who massages their ears with sound waves.
